WAC Austin Welcomes Mr. Larry Tabash Monthly Brown Bag Event Features Speakers on Global Topics

AUSTIN – On September 13th, the World Affairs Council of Austin will welcome Mr. Larry Tabash, the International Business Development & Global Team Leader for Africa, the Middle East & South Asia at the U.S. Department of Commerce. The World Affairs Luncheons are monthly events featuring speakers on a variety of international topics.

Mr. Tabash is a Senior International Trade Specialist and Global Team Leader for Africa, the Middle East, and South Asia for the U.S. Department of Commerce/ Commercial Service in Austin, TX. He has also held short term positions overseas with both Commerce and State Department doing infrastructure development and capacity building.

He has traveled throughout Europe and worked extensively in those markets assisting European companies in finding suitable American partners.

The September 13th luncheon is set for 11:30 am at Austin City Hall room 1029. The series is free to the public and is brown-bag style, with participants responsible for bringing their own meals.

For information on upcoming events in the World Affairs Luncheon series, check the World Affairs Council of Austin website (www.wacaustin.org).

The World Affairs Council of Austin, a member of the World Affairs Councils of America, serves Austinites of all ages and backgrounds who are interested in the world at large. Our mission is to provide those individuals with top-quality programming and events and create conduits for interaction with international experts and decision-makers.
